TOR for Fixed Term Specialist Adviser - Fiscal Policy

Job title:	Specialist Adviser – Fiscal Policy
Contract start date:	ASAP
Contract end date:	31 March 2027
Contract value:	£9,000
Role reports to:	Ellie Chowns MP
Contract manager:	Gill Bullock
Date advertised	17 November 2026

Background

A specialist adviser on fiscal policy is required to support Ellie Chowns MP in her role as Treasury spokesperson for the Parliamentary Green Party (PGP). This is a short-term contract to the end of the current financial year.

Role description

General:

1. Analyse, evaluate, and interpret data to ensure the MP is accurately informed on key issues.
2. Give advice on policy issues.
3. Lead on project work as required.
4. Undertake research on relevant subjects as directed.

Reactive:

5. Support Ellie & the PGP in analysing and responding to current events and/or Government proposals in relation to fiscal policy, including the Ten Year Plan and the Spending Review.

Proactive:

6. Provide trusted counsel and strategic challenge, based on sound judgement and expert subject knowledge, to support Ellie in developing and advancing PGP fiscal policy proposals, including: identifying gaps in current PGP policy, making proposals to address them, identifying opportunities to shape the public agenda, translating complex evidence into actionable political positions, and effectively using parliamentary tools and opportunities.
7. Liaise with colleagues and stakeholders to ensure effective coordination on PGP fiscal policy proposals.

Expected outputs

Support Ellie and the PGP team to produce:

1. Outputs to support the PGP's response to the Ten Year Plan, including identifying key 'green tests', and alternative proposals;
2. Outputs to support the PGP to prepare for the Spending Review, including identifying key 'green tests', and alternative proposals
3. Draft policy content for parliamentary fiscal policy campaigns for Ellie, potentially to include the following policy areas:
    a. Fair taxation of wealth
    b. Polluter pays taxes

Person specification

Essential:

1. Strong demonstrable understanding of UK fiscal policy, including relevant stakeholders, institutions, events, and debates.
2. Strong demonstrable experience of advising/campaigning in the political arena, and excellent political judgement.
3. Strong demonstrable understanding of and sympathy with Green politics, and not a member of another political party.
4. Strong demonstrable experience of working under own steam, producing high-quality work to tight deadlines, managing relationships with multiple stakeholders, and responding effectively to rapidly changing events.
5. Able to work at least some of the time in Westminster.
